Digital Negatives, Prints and Copyrights

Digital Negatives, Prints and Copyrights: The digital negatives or prints produced by Dawson's Photos are protected by Copyright Law (all rights reserved) and may not be reproduced in any manner without Dawson's Photos explicit written permission.

Dawson's Photos shall own the copyright in all images created and shall have the exclusive right to make reproductions. Dawson's Photos shall only make reproductions for the Client, the Client's friends and family or for the Photographer's portfolio, samples, self-promotions, entry in photographic contests or art exhibitions, editorial use, or for display.

Upon payment of negatives by the Client, limited copyright ownership of the resulting images will be transferred to the Client under the following conditions:

The Client will have limited copyright ownership. The Client is obtaining negatives for personal use only and for the purposes of the reproduction and distribution of photographs to friends and relatives. The Client shall not sell said negatives and/or prints. The Client may not authorize reproductions of any prints purchased other than Dawson's Photos. If Client is obtaining a print for newspaper or other publications, Dawson's Photos authorizes Client to reproduce the print in this manner. In such event, Client shall request that a credit for Dawson's Photos run adjacent to the photograph. The Client must obtain written permission from and compensate Dawson's Photos prior to an event where the Client, the Client's friends or relatives publish or sell the photographs for profit. The Client does not have reprint authorization with the purchase of prints; the Client must purchase digital negatives to obtain this right.

If you are ordering digital negatives (CD/DVD) you will receive a "Photographer Release Form" giving you permission to make copies of your portraits. You will receive this form with your order, once payment in full is received and verified.
